

The SACRAO Journal

The Editorial Board welcomes manuscripts for publication in SACRAO's academic, refereed publication, The SACRAO Journal. Manuscript drafts are due August 1 of each academic year, and the final is due by October 30. Preference is given to articles authored by SACRAO members, but articles from outside the membership will be considered based on revelatory findings that advance the work of SACRAO members. Active Journal Editorial Board members may not submit articles for publication; book reviews and commentaries by Board members may be published at the discretion of the Editor.

Preparing Manuscripts

Manuscripts should be submitted in accordance with the stylistic rules and guidelines delineated in the Publication Manual of the American Psychological Association (7th edition). For information, visit <http://www.apastyle.org>. Manuscript pages should be numbered consecutively. All manuscripts are accepted for publication with the understanding that The SACRAO Journal Editorial Board reserves the right to edit for clarity, syntax, and style. The need either to shorten or request the author to lengthen articles is at the discretion of the Editorial Board. The Editor will acknowledge receipt of manuscripts and will forward them to members of the editorial board for review. The board will consider the appropriateness of the articles for SACRAO's membership and reserves the right to reject articles submitted for publication.

Manuscript Submission

Manuscripts submitted for publication must be original material, which has not been simultaneously submitted for publication elsewhere. Length of manuscripts, including references and tables, should range from about 8 – 20 double-spaced, 8.5 x 11-inch pages. Abstracts are limited to 125 words. All charts and graphs should be submitted, if at all possible, in live text format (meaning hand-typed, rather than in image form) to ensure appropriate layout. First drafts of manuscripts are due August 1 annually, and revisions by the Editorial Board are generally returned to the author by the end of September. The final deadline for manuscripts is October 30 in order to meet the printing schedule. Send manuscripts to:
